

Building Harmonious Communities

Through respectful relationships based on equality and safety

Undertake a FREE high level 3 sessions training course for residents and workers in the city of Melbourne

With experienced and engaging facilitators you will learn about:

- Respectful relationships
- Gender equality
- The social change needed for a harmonious multicultural community
- Together we will produce a lasting digital work to express our perspectives on safety, respect and equality in the City of Melbourne

No experience is required, just a passion for change.

Participants will be given a certificate of attendance and an $80 Coles voucher upon completion of the course.
